

Why belong to the Embroiderers Guild, Victoria?

Guild Members enjoy gathering for tuition, resources, encouragement and fellowship – the perfect environment for creativity - whether at Embroidery House in Melbourne, or one of our Branches in Regional Victoria.

Being a member means you can ...

MEET and COMMUNICATE with other members frequently:

- attend regular meetings whenever it suits you, in person or via Zoom
- join a regular Guidance or Stitching Group where you will find encouragement, help and friendship
- attend monthly General Meetings at Embroidery House with guest speaker – in person or via zoom
- enjoy and contribute to 'Threadlines' - the EGV's monthly newsletter - and Branch newsletters
- visit/follow our Facebook and Instagram accounts
- access the Members Area of the Website and our private Facebook page
- participate in retreats and excursions

LEARN a wide range of embroidery techniques and textile styles at in-house workshops and classes taught by local, state, national and international tutors.

- enjoy our annual Summer School program of workshops
- be supported as you learn new techniques
- use the resources of our extensive Library, Collections and Equipment
- be encouraged to follow your own interests and styles
- receive help with all aspects of embroidery
- explore fabrics, threads, techniques, forms, colours, patterns and products

PARTICIPATE in exhibitions - in Melbourne and at your local Branch or Group, fundraising activities and other events, (such as displays and demonstrations) to promote, preserve and advance the art of embroidery.
